Genealogical Chart

Provide as much information as possible regarding your family ancestry (including maiden names), especially the branches you wish researched. Indicate if anyone listed on your family chart was adopted. [As per this Department's policy, we do not provide adoptees with identifying information about their birth parents. Applicants wishing this kind of information should contact the vital statistics office in the province or territory of their birth (<http://tiny.cc/VitalStats>),.] Use a separate sheet of paper for additional information. Reuse below ancestor numbers as references.

Note: DNA results are not accepted as evidence of lineage. We can only verify information contained in our records.
